Centennial Theatre presents Play, Pie & Pint – A Lunchtime Theatre Experience
Featuring The Siobhan Walsh Group - Wednesday, September 19, 2018 at 12:00 pm

Inspired by the wildly successful Scottish theatre series that originated at the Oran Mor Theatre in Glasgow, Centennial Theatre is delighted to announce the start of another season of the popular Lunchtime Theatre series, 'Play, Pie & Pint' on Wednesday, September 19th at noon.

The season kicks off with the divine sounds of the Siobhan Walsh Group fronted by one of the most versatile and sought after vocalists in Vancouver.

With a voice that is inspired, sincere and full of passion, Siobhan Walsh skillfully weaves the stylings of soul, blues, jazz and gospel into one powerful performance. Siobhan's familiar yet refreshing take on music from D'Angelo to David Bowie, Norah Jones and all points between always wins the hearts of her audiences.

The performance will be followed by a hot and savoury meat or veggie pie for lunch and a beverage of choice in the theatre lobby. Seating is limited so purchasing tickets in advance is highly recommended.

Other upcoming Play, Pie & Pint performances;

Teapot in the Tuba - October 31

Rio Samaya – Feliz Navidad - December 19

The Sax of Us - February 6

Saxalamode – April 3

All performances are on Wednesdays at noon.
