2020 Live & Local Culture Series – CALL FOR PERFORMING ARTISTS

North Vancouver, B.C. North Vancouver Recreation & Culture is pleased to present a call for artists for the upcoming Live & Local Culture Series. Now entering its 6th successful summer, the series is seeking performing; visual and multidisciplinary artists to join our popular series. For those who were born to perform, or to share their love for the arts, Live & Local is accepting applications for emerging, mid-career and professional artists in visual arts, music, dance, theatre and entertainment. All genres are welcome to apply.

Successful applicants will bring unique and engaging experiences, workshops or performances to a variety of audiences in North Vancouver neighbourhoods. They will be self-sufficient and will provide any sound equipment, technical support and supplies as part of their performance or experience. Performance opportunities may range from 30 minutes to 2 hours in length.

North Vancouver Recreation & Culture's Live & Local Culture Series are mid-week evening, performance or experience-based events during the months of July and August. These events are offered free to the public as a way to encourage community engagement, cultural richness and diversity. We provide the stage and promotion; you provide the talent!

How to apply as a performing or visual artist:

Application deadline: Email your completed Performance Application and Performance Fee expectations to perform@nvrc.ca by February 24, 2020.

The applications will be reviewed by the Live & Local Culture Series planning committee to determine the opportunities available for 2020. Applicants will be notified by April 2020 if being considered for the 2020 Series. Your information will be kept on file if additional opportunities arise.
