

NVRC Call for Artist Residencies

North Vancouver Recreation and Culture (NVRC) Artist Residency program provides unique opportunities for emerging and established artists from various disciplines, cultures and life experiences to create and produce new work or develop existing projects.

The NVRC Artist Residency program supports Arts and Culture projects and artistic development in North Vancouver. To learn more please visit www.nvrc.ca/arts-culture/artistresidency-program

NVRC provides financial support and space in a community centre, field house or Centennial Theatre. Residencies can be as short as six weeks and as long as six months with varying schedules. Cultural Services staff are available to support artists in their creation of community engaged projects, performances, workshops or artist talks.

The Artist Residency Program seeks to support the exploration of creativity, build community by making art together, and ensure that participation in the arts is accessible to all.

Artists must be legally eligible to work in Canada, live or work in Metro Vancouver, provide a clear criminal record check and hold liability insurance. If you require more information, please contact us to discuss in further detail.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Wednesday, Jan 10, 2024 at 4:00 pm

NVRC's Artist Residency program is built on the understanding and recognition that what is now known as North Vancouver is located on the traditional, unceded territories of the Sḵwxwú7mesh_Úxwumixw (Squamish Nation), and səliłwətał (Tsleil-Waututh Nation). Indigenous oral histories, arts and culture practices, and deep relationships with the lands and waters are respected, as are their current day experiences and cultural, environmental, and economic contributions. In our work, we affirm the importance of working to build better relationships and futures with First Nations and Indigenous Peoples.

If you require assistance completing this application please email us at artistresidencies@nvrc.ca and we will be happy to assist you.
