

Call for Performing Artists 'Play, Pie & Pint'

Centennial Theatre's popular lunchtime series, 'Play, Pie & Pint', is seeking new talent. We are looking for 'ready-to-present' shows with spirited and lighthearted themes that will appeal to a general audience of up to 200 people. The shows are approximately 45-minutes in length and can be drawn from a variety of performing arts disciplines including music, dance and theatre. Following each performance, audience and artists meet in the lobby to enjoy a delicious hot pie and beverage. All performances run on Wednesdays at noon.

Important Information:

1. Your performance should be ready to present. Pre-show sound/lighting check is available on the morning of the performance. Advance rehearsal time is not available.
2. Sound and lighting technical support is provided.
3. An honorarium of $300 is offered to the artist or group.
4. Only those artists selected will be contacted, however all applications will be kept on file for future consideration.
5. Please email your completed application form to fraserk@nvrc.ca
